I will give Ten Dollars for taking up said negro and securing him in jail, if not farther than the city of Washington, Thirty Dollars if as far as Baltimore, and Forty Dollars if as far as Philadelphia. Masters of vessels are forewarned carrying off said fellow at their peril

Richmond, Jan. 4.

Virginia Legislature.

The New Banks—still on the tapis.—Yesterday, the sections for adding three Literary Fund Banks, at Richmond, a Norfolk, and at Petersburg, were taken up.

Mr. Mercer spoke at considerable length in their favor, expatiating upon the Literary Fund, and the advantage that might be expected in the augmentation of its funds from the proposed institutions.

Mr. Anthony enquired if he had a right to move an amendment to these sections—which being conceded, he proposed a section for authorising the Literary Fund Bank at Richmond to establish a branch at Lynchburg—which was agreed to.

The question was then taken on all the sections, relative to the Literary Fund Banks, and adopted.

Mr. Mercer then moved to add a new section to the Bill for authorising two banks to be established in Loudoun, one at Leesburg, with a capital of $174.000; and the other at Waterford, with the same capital: motion rejected.

On which, Mr. Mercer moved a new section, authorising only one bank in Loudoun, to be located at Leesburg or at Waterford, as the Commissioners might select; Motion carried.

Motions were then made by the following gentlemen, for adding new sections to the bill, viz:

By Mr. Sexton, to establish a bank at Winchester, with a capital of $250,000.

By Mr. Marshall, for a bank at Warrenton in Fauquier, capital $250,000.

Mr. Heath; at Dumfries; capital 174,000

Mr. Mercer (in the absence of Mr. Doddridge, who was unwell) a bank at Weldburg, Brook county; capital $200,000.

Mr. Colston; in Jefferson county; $ 200,000.

Mr. McWhorthar; at Clarksburg; $ 200,000.

Mr. Thompson; West End, Fairfax county, $ 250,000.

Mr. Colston; at Romney Humpshire county, capital [blank.

Mr. Irwin; at Wheeling; capital [blank.]

Mr. Craighill; Moorfield, Hardy; capital [blank.]

Mr. Buster—Charlestown, Kanawha; $ 200,000.

Mr. Stokely; Parkersburg, Wood county; 174 000 dollars.

Mr. Cook; Fincastle, Botetourt, 274,000 dollars.

Mr. Crawford; at Staunton; 250,000 dollars.

Which with the three adopted on Thursday & the three Literary Fund Banks, will make in all 21

These successive motions were agreed to.

Mr. Pollard hoped the bill would lay on the table, until this day, to give Mr. Tazewell, whose arrival he expected an opportunity of offering a section in favor of a bank to be established for the aid of the Roanoke Navigation.

Mr. Chamberlayne supported this motion, saying, that although he expected the bill would pass, and any opposition to it would be ineffectual, he wished time to consider it, that he might try to make it as perfect as possible.

Some conversation took place on this subject. Mr. Mercer expressing his wish that the bill might be engrossed by Monday to be read a third time. The motion to lay it on the table was finally acquiesced in, when the House Adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS

Passed at the late session of the General Assembly—NORTH CAROLINA.

IN SENATE, Dec 27, 1816.

WHEREAS it was—

Resolved, By the senate and house of commons of the general assembly of N. Carolina, at their session in the year 1814, that a superb sword appropriately adorned should be presented to captain Johnson Blakely, of the United States sloop of war Wasp, upon his return to the U. States: And whereas, capt. Blakely, having perished at sea, the opportunity has been lost of tendering to him this tribute of affectionate and honorable regard; but having left a wife and child endeared to the people of this state, by his gallant conduct in the service of his country; and it being proper that the sword intended for him should be placed in the hands of his family.

Be it therefore unanimously,

Resolved By the senate and house of commons of the general assembly of N. Carolina, that his excellency the governor be requested to forward to Mrs. Blakely, the sword which was directed by the general assembly of 1814, to be presented to her husband, together with a copy of their resolution on the subject; and to express to Mrs Blakely the deep interest which this legislature will always take in her happiness and welfare:

Resolved further, That capt. Blakely's child be educated at the expence of this state; and that Mrs. Blakely be requested to draw on the treasurer of this state, from time to time, for such sums of money as shall be required for the education of the said child.

Resolved, That his excellency the governor be requested to forward to Mrs. Blakely, a copy of the foregoing resolutions:

Further from our squa[illegible].—We understand that letters from officers [illegible] board the different United States ves[illegible] mention the arrival of the Spark, [illegible] Nicholson, with Despatches, on the [illegible] of November; that commodore Chau[illegible] and our Consul, Mr. Shaler, were au[illegible] ised to negociate with the Dey. [illegible] commodore was on his way up the St[illegible] his vessels in fine order, and expected [illegible] return to Gibraltar, in any event, by [illegible] first of December, when it was his int[illegible] tion to dispatch a vessel to the Uni[illegible] States

The article below, from the News paper, stating, that the Dey had total[illegible] refused to ratify the Treaty, cannot [illegible] correct, as the Spark took out the instructions of our government to the commodore and Mr. Shaler.

We have been favoured with Gibraltar papers to the 8th of November, [illegible] find in the last paper, the arrival there of the U. S. sloop of war Erie, capt. Gamble, in 18 days from Algiers: the U. S. sloop of war Peacock, capt. Rogers, [illegible] days from Algiers; and American brig Othello, Gladding, 20 days from Leghorn for Providence.

The Gibraltar paper of the 19th October, states, that Joseph Nevin, acting Fiscal to the Vice Admiralty Court at that garrison, in a fit of insanity committed suicide, by cutting his throat.

The same paper gives the arrival at Gibraltar, of the American brig Charles Holmes, 30 days from Mahon for Rio Janeiro; U S schooner Hornet, Claxton, 2 days from Malaga, American brig Despatch, Babson, 20 days from Boston, American ship Indian Hunter, Chase, 38 days from Norfolk, and cleared for Marseilles.

The paper of the 30th Oct. gives the arrival of the American ship Camel, Breed, 18 days from Leghorn for the East Indies; U S. ship Washington, Commodore Chauncey, capt. Creighton, 15 days from Algiers; U. S. sloop Ontario, Downs, 14 days from Algiers; U. S. ship Constellation, Crane, 15 days from Algiers.

The paper of the 24th, gives the arrival of the American ship Galetea, Towne, 17 days from Leghorn for Calcutta.

A Private letter from Cadiz, says the merchants complain of the extensive depredations of the insurgent privateers, and the few arrivals from America. Most American articles had risen in price: flour particularly was scarce. At Gibraltar, flour was 14, New Orleans cotton 35 to 45, pitch 6, beef 11, pork 12 to 14, tar 5, tobacco 30 to 34. Staves dull.

Office of the Newport Mercury, Dec. 29

Arrived this afternoon, brig Chauncey, Snow, 48 days from Gibraltar, chartered by commodore Chauncey, to bring home the crew of the Constellation frigate, whose time of service expired several months since. Passengers in the Chauncey, Lieuts. Smith, Henry and Crabb, of the Constellation, Dr. Peachey and Mr. E. Filghman, of Philadelphia—together with 162 seamen. Capt. Gordon, of the Constellation, died on the 6th of September and was buried at Messina on the 10th.

The Chauncey sailed from Gibraltar in the evening of the 16th Nov. and left there the U. S. ship Washington, commodore Chauncey; Peacock, capt. Rogers; and schr. Hornet, lt. Claxton. The Java, capt. Perry; Constellation, capt. Crane; Ontario, capt Downs: Erie and Spark, sailed from Gibraltar on the 13th Nov. for different parts of the Mediterranean.

An American squadron proceeded from Naples to Algiers, which place they left on the 16th Oct. We learn by the officers arrived, that the Dey has totally refused to ratify the treaty concluded by Com Decatur. The Chauncey has brought despatches for government.

It is probable the Chauncey has brought an account of the result of our negociation with Naples.

THESPIAN SOCIETY.

It is highly gratifying to announce to the public, that the entertainments of this evening will be rendered additionally interesting by the appearance of Miss M'Bride, (not 8 years old.) who, with the approbation of her parents, will, in the course of the evening, recite two pieces—the first, "A tribute to the Brave"—The second, Franklin's beautiful and satirical Poem entitled, "Paper."

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

January 4, 1817.

The unfinished business of yesterday, the Report on the Missouri Election, was brought up this morning and occupied the whole of the day. It would be little to the purpose, and as dull and uninteresting to your readers as it was wearisome to the hearers, to give in detail the various opinions avowed, and propositions offered on the occasion. On the grounds that the house had nothing to do with territorial delegates but to receive those that were sent as mere agents, a motion was made to postpone the business indefinitely, but that was negatived. The proposition made yesterday by Mr. Webster for the sole purpose of having the sense of the house taken upon the very extraordinary doctrine set up by the report of the committee, viz. that the house had no right to enquire into or take evidence to the question for which of the candidates the electors, who were found unqualified, had voted; that proposition of Mr. Webster, I say, was ultimately put to the house for its decision. It consisted in effect of two distinct points, viz. to recommit the report to the committee of elections, and to instruct the committee to receive evidence that persons voting for either candidate, were not entitled to vote on the election. As there were some who were willing to vote for the first part, who would not vote for the second, the questions were put separately: the votes on the first being taken by yeas & nays, when there were, for the recommitment, 86 yeas and 59 nays: and for instructing the committee to receive evidence, there were 66 in the affirmative to 44 in the negative. Thus both branches of Mr. Webster's motion were carried by a very large majority, and our public legislative councils rescued, by that able man's interposition, from the interpolation, by precedent of a dangerous and absurd principle.

The Legislature of North Carolina have, at their late session, unanimously resolved to present to Mrs. Blakely, widow of the late capt Blakely, of the U. S. Ship Wasp, the sword which was voted to him by a former Legislature, and also to educate his child.

The following notice has been officially communicated for publication in this Gazette:

Merchants are informed, that all foreign vessels, loaded with flour, will be received in the ports of Bassaterre and Point Petre, Guadaloupe, till the first of February next.

The senate of the United States have, we understand, been summoned to meet in their chamber, in Washington, on the 4th of March next; the day after the termination of the present Congress.

(Messen.)

It is reported that the Spanish part of St. Domingo, is to be given to the French in exchange for Cayenne. If this be so, the French will have a fulcrum on which to rest their lever to overturn the Government of Petion and Christophe, if those black chiefs do not take possession first.

APPROPRIATE REMARKS.

Notwithstanding it is our happy fortune to live in a polished, enlightened and virtuous era of the world, an era in which the bland influences of religion and letters have banished many repulsive traits from the character of the times: In comparison with others, we are a young, a virtuous and a happy people. Let us then, in our youth make provision for an honorable manhood; let us avoid the errors of the old world and we may hope to escape its miseries. Let us not borrow our system of morals from the vitiated channels of European monarchies, in which necessity and state policy are made to justify every enormity; but let us rigidly observe those sacred and salutary precepts of the Christian system, so admirably fitted for the conduct of domestic life and the government of nations.

It requires no extraordinary portion of sagacity to discover, among our widely extended and motley population, an increasing distaste for the pursuits of peace and a restless desire for a state of warfare. The demoralizing effects of the late contest with Britain on the habits and sentiments of our people, continue to operate; and we are rapidly losing that virtuous abhorrence of unjust wars, once so generally felt. This alarming and unhallowed disposition is unquestionably aided by the measures of a decidedly military character, which have either been adopted or are in contemplation, by the general government. Far be it from us to attach odium to our rulers, for the adoption of these measures: for we would fain believe them to be dictated by the soundest rules of national policy, and to be productive of the most beneficial national results. If, however, they be found to foster the lawless disposition we have mentioned, an additional obligation is surely imposed on the Christian and the Patriot to counteract their effects. It becomes those elevated characters, in common with every man whom wealth or talents, or the combined influence of both may have placed on an eminence, to unite their exertions in imparting a salutary bias to popular sentiment: it becomes them to guard and encourage public virtue as the palladium of public happiness, and to beware lest the ennobling attributes of the human character be prostituted in inflicting misery and death on our country and our kind.

Elegant Metaphor.—Proverbs are sometimes expressed in elegant metaphor. I was struck with an oriental one of this sort, met with in some book of travels:—"With time and patience the leaf of the Mulberry tree becomes sattin."

CHARLESTON, Dec. 30.

Extract of a Letter from a gentleman in Havanna, to another in this city, dated

Dec. 11, 1816.

"Within four or five days past, our market has taken a sudden rise in provisions of almost every description, pyrticularly flour, which is now held at 30 dollars per barrel, and will no doubt continue at a high price during the ensuing winter, owing to the scarcity of grain in Europe. There have been some handsome speculations made here by those who first received the intelligence, as all the flour in Havanna was bought up two hours afterwards, at 21 to 22 dollars. One of my friends, (Mr. S. of Baltimore) alone purchased upwards of 3000 barrels, upon which he will clear at least 30,000 dollars."

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 45 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines:

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions orfoulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The luzenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; tching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face pale and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of chint"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hand- the infan part of our citizens i likewise th mildest and most ce tain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

Containing many of his Speeches, &c. Embellished with a Likeness: By Wm. Wirt, Esq. of Richmond, (Va.)

Extract from the Port Folio for August, 1815.

"It is not without a sentiment of sincere gratification that we witness, in the following proposal, arrangements making by a competent hand, to do justice to the character of one of the most worthy and distinguished of our countrymen. As a statesman, a civilian, an orator and a patriot, Patrick Henry was entitled to stand in the foremost rank: Nor do his merits claim an inferior station as a firm, an honest, and an honorable man. He was one of those worthies on whose purity suspicion could never fix a stain.

"If nature did much for Mr. Henry's character while living, accident has not been wanting in its favors to his posthumous fame: for to have found such a biographer as Mr. Wirt, so competent as a writer, and so peculiarly well qualified in every moral relation, is not the least fortunate incident in his history.

"In Mr. Wirt's Life of Patrick Henry we are irresistably impelled to expect much: the materials being excellent, and in great abundance, and the writer able and devoted to his subject. Nor do we think that the public will run any risk of being disappointed by bearing us company in our high expectations. We hope, and, indeed, have no doubt that the work will receive a liberal patronage."
